the riot at Shenandoah on July 30, made to him by Deputy Sheriff Thomas Beddail, resulting in the call for the militia. Deputy Sheriff Beddall says that about a o'clock on the afternoon of Wednesday, July 30, he observed crowds of men running toward the Lehigh Valley and Philadelphia & Reading railroads, shouting "Scab" after three men who were walking up the railroad to the depot. These men were Mr. Good, Mr. Vaughn and Mr. Bennet, of Pottsville, Mr. Good being a draughtsman and the other two machinists. Mr. Bennett and Mr. Vaughn each carried a bundle. Mr. Good said to the pursuers: 'We are not scabs; we are machinists." While the men were making this explanation the crowd surrounded them and a man in the mob tore the paper from the bundles which they carried, revealing a dinner pail and overalls. Immediately the three men were knocked down, beaten, kicked and

The deputy sheriff says he attempted a decision of the whole case. to read the riot act, but the paper was torn from his hands. He drew his revolver and fired over the heads of the mob. The rioters fell back for a moment and Beddall and the three victims succeeded in reaching the railroad station. The mob stormed the station, but the deputy sheriff held the rioters at bay until the arrival of the borough police, with whose assistan e Good, Vaughn and Bennett were pluced on a locomotive and taken to Mahanos City. The deputy sheriff says he did not know until two hours later that his brother, Joseph Beddall, had been fatally assaulted while trying to assist him.

Injunction Against Brass Bands.

KITTANNING, Pa., Aug. 5 .- Judge W. D. Patton, of Armstrong county, has continued as permanent the preliminary injunction granted by Judge Wallace, of Lawrence county, on petition of J. C. Special to the Indianapolis Journal KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 5 .- Indianapolis lost both games of the double header Dally Express from Vienna says the here to-day, being outbatted by Kansas City. The home team did some of the heaviest hitting of the local season, two contests. Beville dld the stick work of the day, making two doubles, a single and a triple, out of four times at bat in the second contest. The Blues found Williams's curves to their liking in the first game and by bunching hits with passes and the visitors' errors, won by a score of 8 to 6. Mc-Donald was also hit rather freely but managed to keep the hits fairly well strung out. The Watkins club got in the lead twice and with the score 8 to 5 in favor of the home team at the beginning of the ninth, looked broken her ankle, but had crawled a long as though the visitors would pull the game distance in spite of the injury. And Gold Brick the 2:30 Pace-Grand Circuit Events Tame-Accident in the First Race.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 5 .- The second day of the Grand Circuit was rather tame. Direct Hal and The Roman repeated their wins of earlier in the season, both getting their races easily. The only excitement came in the first heat of the 2:24 pace, when there was a collision on the first turn, the drivers of King Charles and Grasshopper being unseated. Grasshopper made the circuit of the track without a driver, but King Charles was stopped. Cooper, who drove the former, was not hurt, but Maloney, the owner of King Charles, got a black eye and a badly skinned cheek. The judges ruled that as the collision seemed unavoidable, all horses would start in the other heats. Maloney got up behind King Charles, and in the third heat made a plucky drive, getting win. American Polo Players Inferior.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.-Foxhall Keene, who was captain of the American polo team which played in the international contest at Hurlingham, England, arrived here today on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. Speaking of the contests Mr. Keene said the Americans were beaten because they were inferior players and not because the Englishmen had better horses. as had been stated by other American players. The secret of the Englishmen's success, he said, was their combination play. He added that it was uncertain whether the last game of the series from Baltimore to-Americans would play again next year, day, although it took ten innings to do it.
